1. INTRODUCTION

In compliance with the implementing rules of Executive Order 292, series of 1987 on the Civil Service Law under the Rule VIII Sec. 14 which states that "A Personnel Development Committee shall be established in each Department or agency, both at the national and local governments, including government-owned and controlled corporation with original charters which shall provide support function to management in matter pertaining to selection of agency nominees to training, development, and scholarship programs in accordance with existing civil service policies and standards"; that was later reiterated in Civil Service Commission (CSC) Memorandum Circular No. 10, Series of 1989, this document shall prescribe the guiding principles, functions and composition of the said committee.

Subsequently, CSC launched the Program to Institutionalize Meritocracy and Excellence in Human Resource Management (PRIME-HRM), a mechanism that empowers government agencies by developing their human resource management competencies, systems, and practices toward HR excellence (CSC M.C. No. 3, s. 2012). Under this program, CSC instructs that PDC be renamed to Human Resource Development Committee (HRDC).

The detailed procedures for scholarships, training programs (in-house and outside), and other learning and developmental activities will be covered in separate documents.

2. GENERAL GUIDING PRINCIPLES AND POLICIES

- 2.1. There shall be no discrimination in the selection of candidates of age, gender, civil status, disability, religion, ethnicity or political affiliation unless specifically indicated in the training course or by the sponsoring agency;
- 2.2. There shall be an equitable distribution of scholarships, and training and development opportunities among officials and employees on all levels;
- 2.3. The most deserving qualified candidates especially those with sustained very satisfactory (VS) ratings and those who have not availed of any scholarship/training abroad, are given the opportunity and priority to ensure the equitable distribution of career opportunities;
- 2.4. Completeness and confidentiality of records related to the screening and deliberations shall be maintained and may be released only by the HRDC

Secretariat upon approval of the HRDC Chairperson or TIEZA Chief Operating Officer (COO);

- 2.5. All invitations to local scholarships, foreign academic scholarships, foreign training programs, and short-term courses conducted local or abroad and other career development programs such as study tours, internship, secondments and other agency-sponsored research to be done in other country as well as other development undertakings, shall pass through the HRDC for deliberation;
- 2.6. Participation to ministerial meetings and conferences, fora and symposia related to the international commitments of the Authority or the Philippine Government shall no longer undergo HRDC deliberation. Nominees shall be determined/ approved by the COO; and
- 2.7. The applicant for direct application to inviting organization shall be endorsed by his/her supervisor and manager to the scholarship/training opportunity for approval of the COO, provided that employee or official is also clear with the scholarship/training requirements such as: has complied with the service obligation from previous training grants, has no pending scholarship nomination, has no pending administrative or criminal case, has submitted the required post-travel reports and re-entry plan, etc.

3. FUNCTIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES
